Honorable Ancient Tree

COVER

In 1837, Captain Thomas Milton returned from a voyage to China with a tiny sprig of a tree in a flower pot. If the captain could see it now! Dominating the Edgartown street, this Pagoda Tree may well be one of the largest in the United States. In any event, it is a tree which spreads a huge patch of welcome shade over the entire stree and the backyards beyond. No stroller can pass this spot without being impressed and refreshed from the tree from the other side of the world.

The photos on this page are of what may be the smallest ferry on the east coast but, certainly, it is by far the most efficient. The channel between Edgartown and Chappaquiddick Island is reached by the On Times. These two craft do a crossing as soon as they load and do it all day long in concert like a well-timed ballet. No time is lost in loading and unloading. The passing is near center channel, such is the fine precision of the voyage.

Things to Know about Buying PRECIOUS GEMS ...

Smith & Neil has a beautiful selection of gemstones for you to choose from - we encourage an informed clientele!

COLOR: This is the most important factor in determining the quality and value of Precious Gems. The slightest variations in color can make the largest difference in the appearance of a stone, and can change the price 1000%. Intensity, purity, saturation and the interaction of modifying colors all play a part.

TONE: The amount of color makes a gem appear too dark or too light, thus reducing its value. Slight differences make a large difference in the richness of a gem's color.

CLARITY: This is based on the presence of inclusions and surface blemishes. But be advised - these may be present in the finest gems. Flawless rubies and emeralds are nonexistent.

CUT: Some cutters try to retain weight by sacrificing symmetry and good proportions. In a piece of jewelry, the effect may not be as pleasing.

BRILLIANCY: The quality and quantity of light returning to the eye, brilliancy is not necessarily equally distributed throughout the stone.

DICHROISM: Many gems appear to have two different colors. The less obvious the second color, the more desirable the gemstone.

TEXTURE: Minute inclusions can make a stone look dull by interfering with the passage of light.

We have gemstones, and we have the training and experience to determine value differences. The best advice is to know your jeweler ...

Town Meeting the Only Chance to Vote on ORR Budget

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JULY 31, 1990 - DCJ

Mattapoisett Selectmen John N. DeCosta, Chairman, and Daniel Mahoney (Selectman Bernard Talty was not present because of a business meeting) reviewed an opinion from Daniel C. Perry of Perry, Hicks and Crotty in which he stated that the Old Rochester Regional budget, recertified on July 16th, under the State statute must be voted on within 30 days (Chapter 71, Section 16B). If the town does not vote within that time span then the budget would be deemed approved.

The opinion from Mr. Perry stated: "The Selectmen could call a town meeting, at which the voters acted on a simple motion to approve the budget and to appropriate the apportioned amount, perhaps specifying that the sum be raised by taxes, borrowing or from free cash, if available. If that motion failed to win approval, it seems clear to me that that action would constitute disapproval of the budget for purposes of section 16B.

"Finally, it is technically possible for the Selectmen to call a town meeting at which the members voted on a motion to approve the budget and to appropriate the apportioned amount, subject to approval of a proposition 2½ override for that apportioned amount at an election called for that purpose. In my opinion, however, that vote would be legally ineffective 'to disapprove' the new budget unless the voters considered and rejected the override within the 30-day time limit. If the override election were not held within the 30-day period, the town would have failed affirmatively to disapprove the budget in that time. Therefore, if another municipality approves or fails to disapprove the budget, the town would be obligated to pay the assessed amount regardless of the later outcome of the override election. I would therefore suggest that the town consider this third alternative only if the selectmen conclude that they can hold the override election on or before August 15, 1990."

The Selectmen find that the time limit set by the statute does not allow them to seek an override of Proposition 2½. (Town Clerk Lois Ennis, contacted later, said that it takes 2 weeks to prepare and have a ballot printed. Once in hand the ballot must be sent to absentee voters and time must be allowed for return. This would take 3 weeks so that a machine election could not be held within 30 days as required.) "The statute requires that if the method of voting is changed," she said, "to paper ballot, hand counted, then the state must be notified 30 days before the election is held." This cancels out that option. Because of this,

Selectmen must seek a vote at the town meeting and either use the town's free cash or cu other services to find the money should the town meeting members approve the new budget. Selectmen will request that the Massachusetts Department of Revenue certify Chapter 70 Distribution Funds in the amount of $39,394.60 which the town has been informed is coming but has not received.

Selectmen would like to make it clear to the voters that the only vote on this ORR budget will be the town meeting vote and if they wish to be heard and counted the voters must attend this town meeting to be held on Monday, August 13th, at the Old Rochester Regional High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

JOIN DISABLED AID

Marion's Board of Selectmen, by letter, informed the Mattapoisett Selectmen that Marion has selected Mr. Jospeh Cunning to serve as their representative in the partnership program of the National Organization of Disabilities. They suggested a regional approach and suggested that Mr. Cunning is willing to serve Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester should they so desire. Mr. Mahoney said that it sounded like a good idea and the motion was made and voted. The purpose will be to work with GRANTED a one-day all-alcoholic license to the Apcoites Club of Acushnet Company.

APPOINTED Daniel Mahoney as Selectmen's representative to the Police Sick Leave Bank Committee.

SHELVED the prisoner release program because the Water Department has no work for them. The Highway Department would have to send a man, on overtime, to pick up and return the prisoner as well as supervise during the work period and they do not have the funds.

APPOINTED Attorney Joseph Hannon as special town counsel to provide legal services in the negotiation with the Town of Fairhaven on Mattapoisett's participation in sewer expansion and to represent Mattapoisett in other cases where Perry, Hicks & Crotty have a conflict.

VOTED to order beach/wharf parking stickers for the 1991-1992 season for a fee of $4. to be issued from the selectmen's office.

VOTED to order a $175. sign to identify the Town Hall (because a state employee spent ½ hour looking for the town hall, passing it 3 times without identifying it). The sum of

INTO FAMILY EYE CARE

When shopping for glasses what should I be aware of?

It is most important that you know that the individual or business you will be dealing with is qualified. When you go to a doctor's office you will see displayed on the walls licenses and certificates indicating the doctor's training and schooling. These show a doctor's patients his/her qualifications and also serve to build faith and confidence in his/her abilities to provide proper care. The same holds true for opticians. Find out what that person's qualifications are before doing business.

Working Boat Models

ON DISPLAY AT MUSEUM

Models which actually go in the water and perform are featured during the month of August in a special exhibit at the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum at 7 Church Street. Of special interest are models by Gerald Smith of Marion including a working model of the paddle-wheel steamer, Nantucket, and a steam-powered model of a 24 foot launch Radio control is illustrated in the model of a 12 meter sloop of the type used in the America's Cup competitions. That's not all! Come and see for yourself what a master of the miniature can do.

Because of the interest in this special exhibit, the Museum will be open from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 16th, for a state grant, combined with local funds, will enable the continued operation of the pre-school class at the Sippican School. The program runs mornings (9-1) Monday through Thursday, and follows the public school calendar. It is tuition free. Parents are responsible for providing transportation to and from school each day. Efforts are made to assist parents in forming carpools.

Enrollment is open to all children from Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester who will be four years old by May 31, 1991. Preference will be given to children from low-income families and others in need as determined by the Early Childhood Advisory Council. Applications are being accepted for eight openings.

The purpose of Project GROW is to provide pre-school experience to children whose families have been unable to enroll them in another program and who desire a pre-school experience for their child and to provide children with special needs the opportunity to receive service in the least restrictive environment.

The program is staffed by a certified teacher and an aide. Home visits are an integral part of the program with the teacher visiting each student's home regularly.

ORR Girls Track

Sarah Pond, Kim Akin, Stephanie Anderson

At the annual Old Rochester Girls' Track Banquet, three young ladies received the award of "Most Dedicated". This award is presented to young ladies who have been committed from day one and have done many extra things to help the team and their own performances in Track and Field.

Sarah Pond was a freshman this year, and she was one of the top distance runners anywhere in southeastern Massachusetts. She was elected by the coaches in the league to All-Star. At various invitational meets she won many medals and ribbons. Her best time in the mile this past season was 5:36. Sarah also competes in the 880 and 1 Mile runs. She ran the 5K Race at the national track meet in New York and came in 11th overall.

Kim Akin has been a hard working and contributing athlete in a number of events. Kim runs the 220 and has been part of ORR's successful 4 x 100 Relay Team. Kim has also competed in the Long Jump and Triple Jump. At invitational and state meets she has helped ORR bring home many medals. Kim has also been used on a variety of relay teams in both Track and Field events. Kim was a sophomore this past season.

Stephanie Anderson was a sophomore this past year, but age was no factor when it came to running the 440. She was one of the best anywhere. Stephanie also ran on the highly successful 4 x 440 relay team that placed in many state and invitational meets. This team also ran in New York at the nationals. She was also an excellent High Jumper and Triple Jump athlete. At the national track meet Stephanie competed in the Triple Jump and 4 x 440 Relays.

All of these young ladies are also fine students at Old Rochester and should be commended for their efforts in the classroom and at the track. They are fine examples of our community and school.

Lecture on Antique Wicker

Frank McNamee, one of the country's foremost experts on antique wicker furniture, will be the guest speaker at the Sippican Historical Society's summer lecture to be held at 8 p.m. on August 16th at the St. Gabriel's Parish Hall in Marion.

According to Mr. McNamee, the wicker furniture industry was founded in 1844 when young Cyrus Wakefield figured out how to produce a piece by machine instead of by hand. Throughout the 1890s the industry flourished. The turn of the century brought changes in style and pieces became simpler and larger. This new style of wicker furniture was called Bar Harbor only because so much of it was used at that Maine resort area and the nickname stuck to the style.

Later the cane was woven tighter and incorporated multi-colored designs. This new style began the period of Art Deco. The Great Depression brought a temporary end to the wicker furniture industry. It became popular again in the 1970s and is now more popular than ever.

Mr. McNamee, proprietor of The Wicker Porch Antiques on Route 6 in Marion, is one of the largest dealers in antique wicker in the country. He will bring several samp-

Babe Ruth League

The Mattapoisett Braves, perennial cellar-dwellers in the rugged Gateway Babe Ruth League, captured the league title August 2nd by outlasting the Rochester Raiders, 15-13 in the final game of the league's championship playoff series at Rochester. Thursday's victory marked the first league title for a Mattapoisett team since 1984 and was the first championship for the Braves in over 10 years.

In a bizarre final game that began on Wednesday was suspended for darkness after 6 innings and finally completed Thursday, the Braves pounded out a season high 18 hits, scoring in every inning but the 5th. But, in spite of their heavy hitting, the Mattapoisett 9 had to earn it the old fashioned way - they had to take the game away from the defending league champion Raiders. Trailing 13-10 going into the last inning, the Braves scored 5 times in the top of the 7th. On in relief, Mattapoisett ace Kevin Dawson, who sports a high school quality curve ball to complement his 70 MPH fast ball, shut down the Raiders' machine in order.

The Braves' road to the championship was everything but easy. Pitted against the regular season first place finishing Tigers in the semi-final round of the playoffs, the Braves dropped their first game 11-8. Trailing 5-4 after 4 in the second contest, Mattapoisett was on the verge of elimination in this best of three round. But rookies Glendon Homer (3-4 with 3 RBIs) and Peter Newell triggered a 6 run Mattapoisett explosion in the top of the 5th to sink the hapless Tigers and force a final game.

In the final game, right-hander Scott Gamache, on in relief for Andy Lynch, inherited a 3-2 lead in the top of the third with 2 outs and the bases loaded. The clever 14 year old then proceeded to retire the side and pitch 4 more innings of flawless ball, at one point striking out 4 Tigers in a row. Rochester snatched a 2-1 victory from the Braves in the first game of the championship series as Shane Ingham pitched a masterful one hitter, striking out 7 and walking no one.

But Mattapoisett came back in the second to take a thrilling 7-6 extra inning contest. On to Rochester for game 3, the Braves lost a tough 5-2 decision to Matt Barrett and the Raiders.

Now trailing 2 games to 1 and again facing elimination, the Braves managed to hang on and post an 11-6 victory to set the stage for their dramatic game 5 win.

Exclaimed an enthusiastic Braves' manager Kevin Dawson after the game 5 victory, "This team has played some of the most exciting baseball I've ever seen. They are all very 'special'!"

Letter to the Editor

At its meeting of July 17, 1990, the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee received an End-of-the-Year Financial Report which indicated that the balance remaining in its FY 1989-1990 budget of $5,433,304 was $4,706.57 and should all monies owed the District be received that the balance in its excess and deficiency or surplus account is $2,852.66. By law, the District may carry a surplus of five percent of its total budget. This amount would exceed $250,000.

nance Committee members of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester at a meeting of the Old Rochester Regional Advisory Committee, it was agreed to permit the District to underestimate receipts by $118,500. In a letter to the residents of the member towns, Dr. M.C. Rosenfield, Treasurer of the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee, explained this attempt on the part of the three towns to assist the District in its finances indicating that should the override pass and should receipts be received, the range of the override could be reduced from $260,000 to approximately $142,000.

What the school District has done here is to take the risk of making the assumption that they will receive level funding from the state. This is an enormous risk to take on behalf of the students whom we serve but the school committee takes it knowing the extent of that risk. In order to preserve an excellent school system, the school District has been operating over the last several years with a very small amount of surplus money. This is by agreement with the three towns with the understanding that should there be a problem, the towns will help out. This agreement has been honored by two of the three members towns. Since the last meeting, the District received two checks from SBAB (School Business Assistance Bureau) for capital projects under way. This was money owed the District by the state. Given the financial time, we were pleased to receive the checks, but surprised to receive them. They totaled $30,423. One check came in the very morning of the meeting. The District responded by applying these funds to reduce the assessment to the towns.

worked over the years to bring quality education to all of the students of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. Trying to maintain quality education in any school system is a difficult task. It is even more difficult in a regional school system dependent on the varying finances of the member towns.

We are writing this letter to make clear that we will continue to endeavor to bring the best education possible at reasonable cost to the students of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester, Massachusetts. We hope that we will have your support at the town meetings in Rochester and Mattapoisett on Monday, August 13, 1990.

Q. My tennis game is getting worse. A friend jokingly said, "Get your eyes examined." Could my eyes be the problem?

A. They might be. Many different vision skills are needed to play any sport well.

With a thorough eye examination, your optometrist can tell you if you lack certain skills or need to sharpen some.

In tennis, for example, sharp distance vision, especially when you and the ball are in motion, helps you keep everything in focus.

Peripheral awareness helps you keep an eye on your opponent, partner and court boundaries. You use depth perception to judge the ball's speed and position and vision pursuit skills to follow it. Eye-hand-foot-body coordination helps you get into position to hit the ball.

You may be able to sharpen your vision skills with a vision therapy program. Sometimes, glasses or contact lenses are needed.

Veterans' Up-Date

LEGISLATIVE AGENDA OF 101st CONGRESS

One of the bills proposed was that dealing with Education and Employment. Bills dealing with employment, training, and counseling for veterans were passed by the House Veterans' Affairs Subcommittee in early May. The full House Veterans' Affairs Committee was scheduled to consider the bills in mid-May.

HR 4087 allows Disabled Veterans Outreach Program specialists (DVOPs) and Local Veterans' Employment Representatives (LVERs) to provide employment services to active duty individuals who are within 180 days of discharge or release. The bill also extends the definition of Vietnam-era veterans from December 31, 1991, to December 31, 1996, which would affect affirmative action and the formula to determine the number of DVOPs assigned to the states.

Another bill, HR 4088, a re-introduction of the "Veterans' Recruitment Authority Act of 1990", would restore non-competitive appointment opportunities in federal employment.

HR 4089 would allow the VA, upon request, to provide educational and vocational counseling services and testing for veterans.

HOMELESSNESS

A legislative package of programs for homeless veterans, estimated as high as one-third of all adult homeless males, was unveiled in February by sponsors Congressman Joseph P. Kennedy and Senator John F. Kerry, both Democrats from Massachusetts. The legislation, the "Comprehensive Services Program for Homeless Veterans", provides for $100 million a year for four years to establish services in health-care, housing, vocational rehabilitation, and transportation. The legislation would set up drop-in centers for homeless veterans to receive medical and psychiatric care, meals, employment counseling, and referrals to the VA and other agencies. The bill would also fund mobile outreach teams to provide on-the-spot services and transportation to medical facilities and shelters.

Beef Cook-Off Winner

ROCHESTER WOMAN TO REPRESENT MA. AT NATIONAL BEEF COOK-OFF

Lorraine Carr, a homemaker from Rochester, has won the 1990 Massachusetts Beef Cook-Off, and will represent the state in the Indoor Category at the National Beef Cook-Off in Seattle, Washington September 20-22. At stake in the national contest will be more than $35,500 in cash and prizes, including $15,000 for the "Best of Beef".

Mrs. Carr's winning dish is called "Hot Pepper Glazed Brisket", and has earned her an expense-paid trip to Seattle to compete as the state's representative in the national competition. No stranger to cooking competition, she was also the Massachusetts state winner in the 1982 National beef Cook-Off. Along with cooking, Mrs. Carr enjoys photography, antiques and crafts. She and her husband have four children, two stepchildren and seven grandchildren.

Contestants from all 50 states will be competing in the Indoor Category for a first prize of $5,000 and a top-of-the-line range from Tappan. Winners of the Indoor, Microwave and Barbecue Categories are eligible for the "Best of Beef" grand prize, which carries an additional $10,000 cash award.

Second and third prizes for the Indoor Category are $3,000 and $2,000, respectively. There are also five $500 Honorable

Women and Stress Lectures

Jobs, family demands, personal crises, financial concerns -- is it possible to manage these and stay physically and mentally healthy?

These and other concerns will be explored at Bristol Community College in a three-part series entitled "Women and Stress: Preventing Burnout" on Monday evenings, August 13, 20 and 27 from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Staff Lounge in the College Commonwealth Center.

The first session, given by Terry Clifford, defines burnout and its causes, identifies early warning signs and explores why women are more susceptible to "the superwoman myth".

The second session, given by Sue Sterrett, will offer a prescription for physical wellness. Maintaining good physical and personal health is an important ingredient in preventing burnout, yet one that women often put last because they are caring for others.

The third session will offer a prescription for mental and emotional wellness. Assertiveness, time management and conflict resolution can become important coping strategies in today's changing world for women. It will be given by Terry Clifford.

SMU Pioneers' Reunion

AUGUST 17-18

Southeastern Massachusetts University will hold its Pioneers' Society reunion August 17-18.

The society is for alumni who graduated at least thirty years ago from the Bradford Durfee or New Bedford Institute of Technology, forerunners of SMU.

The weekend will include tours of the original Fall River and New Bedford campuses, a buffet lunch, social hour and dinner. The reunion will close with an outdoor performance of "Fiddler on the Roof" in the SMU amphitheatre.

Honored guests will be members of the class of 1940, celebrating their fiftieth anniversary of graduation.

For more information and reservation forms call the Alumni Office at 999-8031 or 678-7521, ext. 8031. Reservations close August 13.

Buzzards Bay Project

The following is another in a series of articles on the recommendations contained in the Buzzards Bay Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan (CCMP). This Plan is the product of a five-year effort by the Buzzards Bay Project, which is part of a national program to protect critical estuaries. Each of the articles in this series focuses on a separate topic addressed by the CCMP. The series is prepared by the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies for the Buzzards Bay Project.

PREVENTION AND SWIFT RESPONSE ARE KEY TO PROTECTING BUZZARDS BAY FROM OIL POLLUTION

Buzzard's Bay is a major transit route for the small tanker and barge traffic that transports heating oil, industrial oil, and gasoline into the greater Boston and northern New England market. Annually, nearly 2000 tankers, with a net cargo of almost three billion gallons of oil, pass through the Bay and the Cape Cod Canal.

Tanker accidents usually account for less than 10 percent of the estimated 3.9 million tons of oil that enters the marine environment worldwide each year. The bulk of marine oil pollution is generally due to chronic sources such as urban runoff and municipal and industrial discharge.

However, between 1969 and 1989 the relative inputs into Buzzards Bay from such chronic sources and from accidental spills were uncomfortably similar. Within this time frame, 45 percent (over 470,000 gallons) of the total petroleum hydrocarbon discharge into the Bay came from accidental spills.

The largest and most damaging of these spills occurred off of West Falmouth in 1969, when the barge Florida went aground and lost 185,000 gallons of No. 2 fuel oil. Residue from the Florida's spilled cargo can still be detected in Falmouth's marshes and in the tissues of the organisms that live there. According to Lt. Mark O'Malley of the Coast Guard's Marine Safety office in Providence, only 7,605 gallons of oil have been spilled in Buzzards Bay so far this year, 7,500 of which came from the cruise ship Bermuda Star when it ran aground in June. Yet concern that a serious shipping accident could occur here is running high.

"There's a lot of concern because of the amount of traffic that goes through the Bay. There hasn't been a really serious accident in the Bay in twenty years, but the possibility for a very tragic accident certainly exists," O'Malley said.

The Buzzards Bay Project's Comprehensive Conservation and Management plan contains a number of suggestions to improve Bay communities' preparedness for and response to oil spills. Specifically, the Project recommends the development of individual contingency plans by each of the Buzzards Bay communities. Such plans would note the locations of shoreline access points, facilities for the transfer, processing, or storage of oil, and areas of critical habitat. Contingency plans also list the locations of spill response equipment.

Although a regional oil spill contingency plan for Buzzards Bay was developed in 1981 and is currently being updated, the state Office of Coastal Zone Management (CZM) should assist municipalities in developing local plans because such plans can be invaluable in implementing a timely response to a spill.

The Buzzards Bay Advisory Committee (BBAC), which is made up of elected and appointed officials from each of the Bay communities, should develop a regional strategy for responding to oil spills and ensure its adoption by each town. The BBAC should take the lead in ensuring that each municipality appoint a coordinator to maintain and oversee deployment of equipment and organize response activities with the Coast Guard and other responsible regulators. The committee should also encourage communities to share the purchase cost and use of spill response equipment and to require all boatyards and marinas within their boundaries to have response equipment on site.

The Project also suggests that the Coast Guard and the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) conduct annual regional oil spill response drills with Bay communities, and that the state develop a policy and criteria for the use of dispersants in Buzzards Bay during oil spills. Buzzards Bay communities should also adopt regulations governing the fueling of vessels that perhaps mandate the use of containment booms around vessels during loading.

With respect to controlling other sources of oil entering the Bay, the Project recommends that cities and towns require performance standards for catch basins that remove oil and grease and implement a maintenance program for these basins. DEP should also adopt a statewide policy for treating stormwater and require oil and gas traps, absorbent pads, and regular catch-basin maintenance. Finally, enforcement of regulations re-

MARINE DETACHMENT (1797) AND SCOTTISH PIPE BANDS

There will be plenty of marching pipe bands and military demonstrations when the USS Constitution Museum Marine Detachment (1797) performs on Saturday, August 18th, at 11:00 a.m., 12:00 noon, 2:00 and 3:00 p.m.; then on Sunday, August 19th, the Clan Sutherland and Highland Light Scottish Pipe Bands will perform at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. Both programs will be held at the Military Parade Field on the grounds of Heritage Plantation.

The Marine Detachment show will consist of marching and drilling demonstrations, Marine fife and drum music, musket and cannon/mortar firing, as well as social history talks. The program will be held rain or shine.

During the period from 1785 (when the last fighting ship of the American Revolution was sold) until 1797 the United States was without a navy or marine corps. During the 1790s American merchant shipping began to be harassed by France and countries of the middle east area of the world. Congress commissioned for six warships to be constructed in order to safeguard American the U.S.S. Constitution. The Detachment presents programs twice a month throughout the year. In addition, the unit has an outreach program and travels to other museums, historic sites and recreations for special events, parades, lectures, battle reenactments, etc. The Detachment makes its home at the Old Charlestown Navy Yard now part of the Boston National Historical Park.

Then, on Sunday, the Clan Sutherland and Highland Light Scottish Pipe Bands will perform at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. The group will form in front of the Shaker Round Barn on the grounds and march to the MIlitary Parade Field where they will present their popular program.

As an added attraction, the Highland Light Society will bring some Scottish dancers to round out the program. They will perform during the program break.

Both Pipe groups wear regimental dress for parades. This consists of kilts and khaki shirts with sporrans worn on the front. The kilts are subdued blues and greens. This is the hunting tartan of the Stewart clan, which makes the wearer less visible in the woods.

The sporran is a pouch or pocket made of horsehair. Pipers wear glengarry caps decorated with cock feathers. The pipes themselves are colorful with tassels tied to the end of the drones. From the minute they assemble at the Barn and march through the grounds, visitors are caught by the haunting sounds of bagpipes.

CAREERS PROGRAM

In continuation of its policy of community involvement, the non-traditional careers program at Old Colony Regional Vocational-Technical High School is seeking area business representatives willing to become part of a mentoring project. The new program will pair experienced workers with students currently studying similar areas and provide opportunities for the young people to learn first-hand about their careers. A minimal time investment is asked of the mentor and will be arranged on an individual basis after school reconvenes in September.

Depending on shop enrollment, mentors may be needed in machine drafting, health careers, cosmetology, culinary arts, data processing, machining, welding, fabrication, auto mechanics, carpentry, electricity, electronics and offset printing.

Business owners and tradespeople experienced in these areas are encouraged to contact the program coordinator, Irene Duprey-Gutierrez, at 763-8011 for more information.

Walk at Allens Pond

MIGRATORY BIRDS

Join the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies on Sunday, August 19th, and bid farewell to the magnificent array of birds that made the Allens Pond Complex in South Dartmouth their summer home this year.

Allens Pond is a private, 750-acre complex of salt pond, salt marsh, dune, shrub, forest and agricultural land. Sunday's walk is a unique opportunity to see this pristine environment and its varied summer inhabitants before they head south for the winter.

Guided by Jim Lyons, a former research assistant at the Lloyd Center and a current staff ornithologist at Manomet Bird Observatory in Plymouth, participants can expect to see Least Terns, Snowy and Great Egrets, Great Blue Herons, Ospreys, and a variety of plovers and sandpipers.

The two-hour walk will begin at 9 a.m. at the Lloyd Center. Participants are asked to pre-register by calling or writing the Center, P.O. Box 7037, South Dartmouth, MA. 02748; telephone 990-0505.

There is a charge of $5. for adults and $1. for children under 12. Members of the Lloyd Center will receive a $2. discount on this event and all Center activities for which there is a fee. Members also receive advance notice of upcoming events and a bi-monthly newsletter.

Lloyd Center Canoe Trip

ASSONET RIVER TRIBUTARIES

Canoe the small streams that feed the Assonet River on Saturday, August 18th, led by naturalists from the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies.

The Assonet lies north of Fall River. Its tributaries wend their way through cedar swamps and fresh and salt water marshes, providing access to the virtual wilderness that lies within the city's backyard.

The trip, which starts at 9 a.m. and should be completed by 4 p.m., will begin with a review of paddling skills and canoe safety. Participants should bring their own lunches and plenty of liquid refreshments.

The cost of the trip is $15. for Lloyd Center members, $20. for non-members. There is an additional charge of $4. per person for canoe rental, but participants are welcome to supply their own canoes.

"Fiddler on the Roof"

FREE OUTDOOR PRODUCTION AT SMU

Southeastern Massachusetts University's Theatre Company will present a free, outdoor production of "Fiddler on the Roof" at 8 p.m. August 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th.

The play, one of the most popular Broadway hits of all time, will be staged in the SMU amphitheater. The public is invited to bring chairs, a blanket, and refreshments (no alcoholic beverages are allowed).

The production was made possible by a gift from an anonymous benefactor.

Rotch-Jones-Duff Concert

EVENING OF TRADITIONAL SONG

The Rotch-Jones-Duff House & Garden Museum will present English-born Dave Goulder, guitar virtuoso, in a performance of original and traditional music on Friday, August 10th, starting at 7:00 p.m.

Goulder's music is inspired, in part, by his life experiences as master drystone wall builder in the Scottish Highlands and as a fireman on British railroads. His presentation is the sixth performance of the Museum's Heritage Concert Series. The Heritage Concerts are considered family events and are held outside under a tent on the beautiful landscaped Museum grounds, located at 396 County Street, New Bedford. Patrons are encouraged to bring lawn chairs for a joyous music-filled evening under the stars.

Admission is $4.00 for adults; family rate, $6.00; Museum members, free.

The Museum's Heritage Concerts are sponsored in part by generous grants from Compass Band, The New Bedford Arts Lottery Council and The Massachusetts Cultural Council.

The concerts are produced by Helene and Alan Korolenko of Barrel of Music Productions.

"Tobey Tackles Arthritis"

Arthritis treatment will be the focus of a free medical lecture sponsored by Tobey Hospital on Tuesday, August 21st, at 7 p.m. at the Human Services Building in Sandwich.

"Tobey Team Tackles Arthritis" will feature a discussion on the various medical disciplines involved in treating this common and sometimes debilitating disease. Phillip Molloy, M.D., a rheumatologist at Tobey, will discuss the medical management of arthritis. Orthopedic surgeon Gregory Johnson, M.D. will describe surgical treatment and Janet Gillis, RPT and Monette Blanchard, OTR will outline the physical and occupational therapies
